

Friday nights belong to football, cheerleaders, and dreams of graduation.

For Elexa Stein,
life is finally beginning.

By sunrise, her family
has been slaughtered.

She wakes inside a morgue with no heartbeat, impossible strength, and memories that refuse
to make sense.

The police think she's guilty.
The town fears her.
Ancient monsters recognize her.

While mysterious hunters close in from every direction, Elexa discovers she is the first child ever born to a Vampire Queen and a Werewolf Alpha— an existence believed impossible.

Now every supernatural faction wants to claim, control, or destroy her before she learns the truth about what she really is.

Because if the prophecy is true...

Elexa isn't simply another monster.
She's the future of
every bloodline.
